PREFACE.

I.

PILGRIMAGE FROM ENGLAND TO PARAY-LE-MONIAL, IN HONOUR OF THE SACRED HEART.

AT this time, when the Church is going through a period of extraordinary tribulation in the person of the Supreme Pontiff, of her Bishops and Priests, and of the religious orders—her strength and her glory—the feeling, natural to all Christians, that in prayer alone can be found the remedy for all these evils, is now assuming a form which has been in all ages one of the most vivid expressions of Catholic Faith—that of pilgrimages to those sanctuaries where ancient devotion or recent graces have led men to exclaim as the Patriarch Jacob at Bethel: ‘Indeed, the Lord is in this place.’

So instinctive, if we may so speak, so spontaneous, and so rapid in its spread has been this pious impulse, that it would seem to indicate a special correspondence with the needs of the present period. The ease with which men unite for various purposes, the facility with which space is traversed and thoughts transmitted in our days, has often served the interests of Satan and his agents. The followers of Jesus Christ are now using these means for an opposite end. In the face of an infidel and blaspheming world they feel impelled openly to proclaim their love for our Divine Lord, and to call upon Him 'who alone is great and does wonderful things' to give ear unto their prayers. France, Germany, Italy, Switzerland, and Belgium all share in this holy movement. We Catholics in England propose to take our part in it.

It will be well to make special mention of the place which has been fixed upon as the object of our Pilgrimage. Those who have read the life of the Blessed Margaret Alacoque are already familiar with the name of Paray-le-Monial; but there may be many who do not know the reason why this small and obscure French town is connected with the devotion of the Sacred Heart, and why numberless pilgrims have gone thither during the month dedicated to its worship, to pray for their Church and for their country; for Rome and for France.

Exactly two hundred years ago a miracle of divine love took place in the humble little Convent of the Visitation at Paray, which opened the source of all the graces which have flowed ever since from the devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

To a humble daughter of St. Francis of Sales, who had nursed in her pure and child-like soul an ardent love to our Blessed Lord, that Divine Saviour appeared. He saw her at prayer under a tree in the little garden of the convent, as He once saw Nathaniel under the fig-tree, and to that heart that had no guile He vouchsafed to intrust the message that promised countless blessings to all who would honour with a special love and devotion His Sacred Heart — ‘that Heart that has loved men so much and has been so little loved in return.’

Through good and evil report, through persecution and contempt, humbly and perseveringly, that pure soul bore witness to the desire of her Lord, and delivered this message of boundless love, until the hearts of men began at last to believe in it, and to test and to experience its truth.

The Church set her seal on this devotion; recognised, proclaimed, and recommended it to the faithful.

This year, therefore, which is the second centenary of that gracious revelation, has been chosen as one of special appeal to the Sacred Heart of our Lord; one so urgent, so unanimous, and so humble, that it cannot fail to reach that Divine Heart, and to move it to compassion; and Paray-le-Monial, the scene of our Lord’s apparition to His chosen daughter, has been selected as the most fitting place for that appeal. It is a singular fact that it was in London that the special devotion to the Sacred Heart was for the first time alluded to in a public manner. Father la Colombière, S.J., touched upon it in a sermon which he preached on Corpus Christi, 1677, in the Chapel of St. James's, before the Duchess of York—afterwards Queen Mary Beatrice.

We have now only to add that his Grace the Archbishop of Westminster, and many of our Bishops, have given their warmest sanction and encouragement to the pilgrimage from England, and their blessing to all those who take part in it; and we would point out that this may be done in various ways. Those who cannot perform the pilgrimage themselves may enable others by their contributions to join in it, or may help to make an offering at the Shrine, or contribute to the Fund; and offerings for this purpose, as well as for the general objects of the pilgrimage, will be thankfully received by the Committee. All who help to make known and to recommend this national Catholic act of homage to our Blessed Lord will aid its success and share in its graces.

APPROBATION OF THE ENGLISH HIERARCHY ASSEMBLED IN PROVINCIAL COUNCIL.

To his Grace the Duke of Norfolk and others of the Faithful, the Archbishop and Bishops of England in Synod assembled.

Health and Benediction in the Lord.

As soon as it became known to us, dearly beloved son, that, with a numerous and distinguished company of the Faithful of our country, you had resolved, in honour of the Sacred Heart of Jesus, to make a pilgrimage of devotion to the relics of Blessed Margaret Mary at Paray-le-Monial, we rejoiced with our whole heart, for it seemed unworthy of the faith of our country that the name and piety of England should be unrepresented in that wonderful concourse of the Faithful, by which, in many sanctuaries of France, a resplendent testimony is now being given against the unbelief and wickedness of the world. In the cruel war which we see daily and everywhere breaking out, not only against the Church of God, but also against the civil life of men, against the truths of the natural order and the instinctive laws of morality, the only safe defence for mankind is to be found in the Most Sacred Heart of our Redeemer. When the flood of Divine wrath which is now threatening the world shall have come, he that shall be in this ark shall be saved, he that shall be found out of it shall perish. The kingdoms also and the nations which, with an obstinate audacity, have long refused to serve God and His Christ shall, as the Holy Spirit has foretold, be destroyed by mutual slaughter, and by a just judgment be soon scattered like smoke before the face of the Lord. Go then, dearly beloved son, you and your companions, and, in the sight of this world, which knows not how to pray, make supplication to the most loving Heart of Jesus. Pray for our Pontiff Pius; for the whole Church throughout the world; for the Bishops and Priests, and the Faithful of Christ, who in Germany and in Switzerland are gloriously striving against the tyranny of unbelievers and the wickedness of destroyers; for the nations once Christian, but which to-day are miserably fallen from the faith; and, lastly, pray all of you with earnestness for our beloved England, that from the side of Jesus, which was opened for us with the lance, the fulness of all sanctity and fortitude may flow down upon us. Giving thanks, therefore, to you and your companions for the devout pilgrimage which, also in our name, you are about to undertake, we lovingly and from our hearts bestow our blessing on you ; and we earnestly commend you all to the loving charity of our brethren the Bishops of the Catholic Church, and of all the Clergy and Faithful, that in every good service they may be at hand to help you.

Given in the Fourth Provincial Council of Westminster on the 23d day of July 1873.

BRIEF OF THE HOLY FATHER ON THE FRENCH PILGRIMAGES.

THE following is the text of the Reply of his Holiness to the Address recently presented to him on the occasion of the pilgrimages to Paray-le-Monial :

To our dear sons Lucien Brun, G. de Belcastel, Count Abbâdie de Barrau, and to all the Deputies of the National Assembly of France who, with the intention of devoting themselves to the Sacred Heart, have organised the Ceremony of Supplication at Paray-le-Monial, Lyons.

PIUS IX., POPE.

Dear Sons, Salutation and Apostolic Benediction,—We have not doubted, dearly-beloved sons, that there would rise again in France, after the long darkness of error, the Sun of Justice, so soon as we perceived that it was manifestly preceded by that joyful Aurora, the Mother of Grace. It is she who by her presence has made this nation emerge from its sleep ; it is she who has gently drawn the people—she who has attracted all these eager crowds by numberless benefits, so that she might out of all make for her Son a kingdom. Already, dearly-beloved sons, you have been led by this gentle mother ; already you have gone straight to her, placing yourselves under her protection ; and already of your own accord you devote to her yourselves, all that you have, and your country. It is truly a spectacle worthy of men and of angels to see these eager legions of Christian men and women, who, without any instigation from ecclesiastical authority, but only to its great joy and under its moderating influence, pour themselves spontaneously into the sanctuaries to ask pardon for having so long kept aloof from God, and to offer that humble and contrite heart which knows no repulse. When we consider that all these evils originated with those who at the end of the last century seized the supreme power, introducing the horrors of a new right, and propagating the fictions of an insensate doctrine; when we remember that from that source, too, came the perverse use of the forces and the armies from whence, amid the total subversion of political power in Europe, came those seeds of disorder which, each day being scattered further and further, have little by little conducted the world to the condition of ceaseless disturbance—we feel an extreme joy at seeing the return of France to God beginning with éclat, and begun by those who have been deputed to busy themselves with public affairs, to make the laws and govern the people, and by those who, placed at the head of the land and sea forces, reform the force of the nation. This concord of right and of might to render homage to the Most High, to whom belongs all strength and wisdom, presages a future in which the reign of error will be destroyed, and in which, consequently, the origin of evils will be destroyed to the very root. It gives, at the same time, the hope of a perfect reorganisation of things, of a solid tranquillity, and a full restoration of the greatness and glory of France. For He who is great by power, by judgment, and by justice will give wisdom, intelligence, and firmness to those who believe in Him with a perfect heart, and He will scatter with munificence His gifts of grace among the people who devote themselves to Him, and who trust in Him. This is what we augur for you; this is what we augur for your country, dearly-beloved sons. In this hope, as pledge of the support of heaven, and as witness of our paternal affection, we give with our whole heart, to you and the whole of France, our Apostolic Benediction.

Given at Rome, near St. Peter's, the 24th July 1873, in the 28th year of our Pontificate.

N.B. At the end of each exercise the following should be repeated :

Cor Jesu sacratissimum, miserere nobis !

Cor Mariæ immaculatum, ora pro nobis !

Beata Margarita Maria, ora pro nobis !

FORM OF CONSECRATION TO THE SACRED HEART.

O MOST sweet Jesus, fountain of charity, Father of Mercies, and God of all consolation, who hast deigned to lay open to us, miserable and unworthy sinners, the unspeakable riches of thy Heart, we give thee thanks for all the blessings and benefits vouchsafed to men, and especially to the Priests and people of our country: above all, we thank thee for the institution of the Blessed Sacrament, in which thou abidest with us, a living and continual sacrifice.

Farther, in reparation for the injuries and insults offered by ourselves and by others to thy most loving Heart in this Adorable Sacrament, we hereby consecrate ourselves to thy Sacred Heart, with all that we have and all that we are, promising, as far as in us lies, to propagate this devotion to thy Divine Heart.

And now, O Lord, hear the prayer of thy servants. Behold how hell is being filled with souls redeemed by thy Blood. Have compassion, we beseech thee, O most pitiful and loving Saviour, upon the souls in our land, which is solemnly consecrated to thy Heart. Bring home upon thy shoulders to the fold the wanderers in the paths of ignorance and error: touch with the fire of thy charity the hearts that have grown cold and indifferent to thy service. Grant, we implore thee, to our fervent supplications, through the tears and sorrows of thy Heart, through thy Precious Blood and thy bitter Passion and Death, the conversion of innumerable souls, with whom we may praise thee for ever and ever.

Moreover, we choose the ever-blessed Virgin Mary for our Mother; to her most pure heart we also consecrate ourselves, promising our earnest endeavours to spread around us a devotion to this most tender and Immaculate Mother, according to the mind of the Church.

Lastly, we choose St. Joseph, the foster-father of Jesus, the spouse of Mary, and the faithful guardian of them both, to be our patron and protector in life and in death. May he teach us how to pray, how to live with Jesus and Mary, and how to die in their arms !

We beseech thee, O Lord Jesus Christ, of thy immense goodness and clemency, that thou wouldst deign to receive this oblation of ourselves in the odour of sweetness ; and that as thou hast inspired us with the desire and the will to make it, so thou wouldst grant us the graces necessary to complete it. Amen.

PRAYERS FOR THE HOLY FATHER.

Divine and most loving Heart of Jesus Christ, whence the Church drew her life, behold here before thee thy humble and trustful children, who with all the earnestness of their hearts pour out their prayers for our august Head, their Father the Sovereign Pontiff.

Console him, we beseech thee, O Lord, with thy heavenly sweetness ; strengthen him by thy power, and defend him, that so he may obtain a complete victory over his enemies, the enemies alike of justice and truth.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory.

O Immaculate Virgin Mary, Mother of God, listen to the prayers which in all humility and confidence we offer to thee for the Sovereign Pontiff, the Vicar of Jesus Christ : O, by that resplendent crown of glory with which he adorned thy brow, in the dogmatic definition of thy Immaculate Conception, console him under the sadness occasioned by the ingratitude of his children ; support him in the day of grief and of trial ; and obtain for him from thy Only-begotten Son, that even on earth he may behold in joy the triumph of the Church.

Queen conceived without original sin, pray for us.

Hail Mary, thrice.

Blessed Michael, the Archangel, invincible leader of the heavenly host, and thou, St. Joseph, the most pure Spouse of the Virgin Mary; and you also, glorious princes of the earth, the Holy Apostles SS. Peter and Paul; intercede for us with God, that for his own glory, for the glory of the Church, and for the consolation of the faithful throughout the world, he would be pleased again to send his angel from heaven, to rescue the Vicar of Jesus Christ from the hands of his enemies, that he may be entirely free in the exercise of his supreme and infallible teaching authority.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory.

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to humble the enemies of Holy Church. We beseech thee, hear us.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory.

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to govern and preserve thy Holy Church. We beseech thee, hear us.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory.

That thou wouldst vouchsafe to preserve our Apostolic Prelate, and all orders of the Church, in holy religion. We beseech thee, hear us.

Our Father. Hail Mary. Glory.

V. Let us pray for our Sovereign Pontiff Pius.

R. The Lord preserve him and give him life, and make him blessed upon the earth, and deliver him not into the hands of his enemies.

Let us pray.

Almighty, everlasting God, have mercy on thy servant Pius, our Sovereign Pontiff, and direct him, according to thy clemency, into the way of everlasting salvation, that, by thy grace, he may both desire those things that are pleasing to thee, and perform them with all his strength.

His Holiness has granted, Nov. 29th, 1870, 100 days' indulgence daily to all the faithful who, with contrition, shall recite the above prayers for the Holy Father.

PRAISES OF THE HOLY NAME OF GOD.

To be said after Mass and Benediction.

Blessed be God.

Blessed be his holy name.

Blessed be Jesus Christ, true God and true Man.

Blessed be the name of Jesus.

Blessed be Jesus in the Most Holy Sacrament of the Altar.

Blessed be the great Mother of God, Mary most holy.

Blessed be her Holy and Immaculate Conception.

Blessed be the name of Mary, Virgin and Mother.

Blessed be God in his Angels and in his Saints.

To all who should devoutly and with a contrite heart recite the above Act of Praise, Pope Pius VII., by a Rescript of July 23d, 1801, granted an indulgence of one year; and our Holy Father, Pope Pius IX., by a decree of the Sacred Congregation of Indulgences, dated August 8th, 1847, has granted a Plenary Indulgence once a month to all those who at least once a day recite the said Act, provided that, being truly contrite, they confess and communicate, and visit some church or public oratory, and pray there according to the intention of his Holiness.

AN ACT OF REPARATION TO THE SACRED HEART OF JESUS.

O adorable Heart of my God and Saviour, filled with a lively sorrow at the thought of the injuries which thou hast received, and art every day receiving, in the august Sacrament of the altar, I prostrate myself at thy feet, to make thee an act of humble reparation for all that thou hast suffered. O that by my reverence, by my devotion, I could make amends to thy outraged majesty! O that I could do so, even at the sacrifice of my life! Call to mind thy mercies, O Jesus, and grant me the pardon which I beg for so many impious, heretical, and slothful Christians, who dishonour thee, and above all for myself, who have so often offended thee. Remember not my ingratitude; but remember that thy divine Heart, bearing the burden of my sins, was afflicted even unto death. Let not thy sufferings and thy blood be in vain ; destroy in me my sinful heart, and give me one according to thine own—a humble and a contrite heart ; a heart that is pure and full of horror for sin ; a heart that henceforth may be as a victim wholly consecrated to thy glory, and inflamed with the sacred fire of thy love. And for my part, I promise thee, O most sweet Jesus, to endeavour for the future, as much as in me lies, by my devotion in church, by my diligence in visiting thee in the Sacrament of the altar, by my fervour in receiving thee in the holy Communion, to make reparation for the irreverences, the profanations, and the sacrileges which I deplore in the bitterness of my soul. Amen.

The Benedictus, or Canticle of Zachary.

Benedictus Dominus Deus 1 Blessed be the Lord God of Israel : quia visitavit, et fecit redemptionem plebis suæ. Israel : for he hath visited, and wrought the redemption of his people.

Et erexit cornu salutis nobis : in domo David pueri sui. 2 And hath raised up a horn of salvation to us : in the house of his servant David.

Sicut locutus est per os sanctorum : qui a sæculo sunt, prophetarum ejus. 3 As he spake by the mouth of his holy prophets : who are from the beginning.

Salutem ex inimicis nostris : et de manu omnium qui oderunt nos. 4 Salvation from our enemies : and from the hand of all that hate us.

Ad faciendam misericordiam cum patribus nostris : et memorari testamenti sui sancti. 5 To perform mercy to our fathers : and to remember his holy testament.

Jusjurandum quod juravit ad Abraham patrem nostrum : daturum se nobis : 6 The oath that he sware to Abraham our father : that he would grant unto us :

Ut sine timore, de manu inimicorum nostrorum liberati : serviamus illi, 7 That being delivered from the hands of our enemies : we may serve him without fear,

In sanctitate et justitia coram ipso : omnibus diebus nostris. 8 In holiness and justice before him : all the days of our life.

Et tu, puer, propheta Altissimi vocaberis : præbis enim ante faciem Domini parare vias ejus. 9 And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest : for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways.

Ad dandam scientiam salutis plebi ejus : in remissionem peccatorum eorum. 10 To give knowledge of salvation unto his people : for the remission of their sins.

Per viscera misericordiæ Dei nostri : in quibus visitavit nos oriens ex alto.

11 Through the bowels of the mercy of our God : whereby the orient from on high hath visited us.

Illuminare his qui in tenebris et in umbra mortis sedent : ad dirigendos pedes nostros in viam pacis.

12 To enlighten them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death : to direct our feet into the way of peace.

Gloria Patri.

Glory be to the Father.

Ant. In the way of peace and prosperity may the Lord, the almighty and merciful, direct our steps. And may the angel Raphael accompany us on the way, that we may return to our home in peace, safety, and joy.

V. Show us thy way, O Lord.

R. And teach us thy paths.

V. O, that our ways were directed.

R. To keep thy righteous laws.

V. The crooked ways shall be made straight.

R. And the rough places smooth.

V. God hath given his angels charge concerning thee.

R. To keep thee in all thy ways.

V. Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

O God, who madest the sons of Israel to walk with dry feet through the midst of the sea, and who didst open to the three magi, by the guiding of a star, the way that led to thee; grant to us, we beseech thee, a prosperous journey and a time of tranquillity, that, attended by thy holy angel, we may happily arrive at that place whither we are journeying, and finally at the haven of eternal salvation.

O God, who broughtest Abraham thy son out of the land of the Chaldees, and didst preserve him unhurt through all his journeyings, we beseech thee vouchsafe to keep us thy servants; be unto us our support in our setting out, our solace on the way, our shadow in the heat, our covering in the rain and cold, the chariot of our weariness, the fortress of our adversity, our staff in the ways of slipperiness, and our harbour in shipwreck, that under thy guidance we may reach in prosperity the object of our journey, and at length return to our home in safety.

Give ear, O Lord, we beseech thee, to our supplications, and dispose the way of thy servants in the blessedness of thy salvation, that amidst all the various changes of this our life and pilgrimage we may ever be protected by thy help.

Vouchsafe to thy people, we beseech thee, Almighty God, that they may walk onward in the way of salvation, and, by following the exhortations of the blessed forerunner John, may come safe to the presence of him whom he preached, Jesus Christ thy Son, our Lord, who liveth and reigneth with thee, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, God for ever and ever. Amen.

V. Let us proceed in peace.

R. In the name of the Lord. Amen.

EXPOSITION AND BENEDICTION OF THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT.

When the Priest opens the Tabernacle, and incenses the Blessed Sacrament, is sung the Hymn,

O salutaris Hostia,	O saving Victim, opening wide

1 The Lord said to my Lord :
Sit thou at my right hand :

Donec ponam inimicos tuos :
scabellum pedum tuorum.

2 Until I make thine enemies :
thy footstool.

Virgam virtutis tuæ emittet
Dominus ex Sion : dominare in medio inimicorum tuorum.

3 The Lord shall send forth the rod of thy power from out of Sion : rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.

Tecum principium in die
virtutis tuæ in splendoribus
Sanctorum : ex utero ante luciferum genui te.

4 Thine shall be the dominion in the day of thy power, amid the brightness of the Saints : from the womb, before the day-star, have I begotten thee.

Juravit Dominus, et non pœnitebit eum : Tu es sacerdos in æternum secundum ordinem Melchisedec.

5 The Lord hath sworn, and will not repent : Thou art a priest for ever according to the order of Melchisedec.

Dominus a dextris tuis : 6 The Lord upon thy right hand : hath overthrown kings in the day of his wrath.

Judicabit in nationibus, implebit ruinas : conquassabit capita in terra multorum. 7 He shall judge among the nations, he shall fulfil destructions : he shall smite in sunder the heads in the land of many.

Mittit crystallum suum sicut buccellas : ante faciem frigoris ejus quis sustinebit ? 6 He sendeth his ice like morsels : who is able to abide his frost ?

Emittet verbum suum, et liquefaciet ea : flabit spiritus ejus, et fluent aquæ. 7 He shall send forth his word, and melt them : he shall blow with his wind, and the waters shall flow.

Qui annuntiat verbum suum Jacob : justitias et judicia sua Israel. 8 He maketh known his word unto Jacob : his statutes and ordinances unto Israel.

SUNDAY.

From Ps. lxxiii. lxx.

Save me, O God, for the reproaches of them that reproached thee are come in even unto my soul.

I stick fast in the mire of the deep, and there is no sure standing.

Because for thy sake I have borne reproach; shame hath covered my face.

I am become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien to the sons of my mother.

For the zeal of thine house hath eaten me up; and the reproaches of them that reproached thee are fallen upon me.

How great troubles hast thou showed me, many and grievous; and yet hast thou turned again and refreshed me, and hast brought me back from the depths of the earth.

Thou hast multiplied towards me thy magnificence; and hast turned again and comforted me.

I will praise the name of

Let us pray.

O almighty everlasting God, by the counsel of whose goodness the souls of all the faithful are bound together in a communion of prayers and merits, and united in the one only Church of Christ, whether they already reign triumphant in

I will hearken what the Lord God shall say within me; for he will speak peace unto his people;

And unto his saints, and unto them that are converted in heart.

Surely his salvation is nigh unto them that fear him; that glory may dwell in our land.

For the Lord shall put forth his goodness, and our land shall yield her fruit.

heaven, or, still militant, are straitened in the body, or, sentenced to expiatory sufferings, are being purified from their stains; look graciously upon our beloved country, now too long separated from this communion of saints, and deprived of all the graces which flow therefrom; make her speedily to return into this bond of charity and peace, that, from the opened treasures of thy Church, both living and dead may receive indulgence and pardon. Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

Then are said the prayers at the end.

THURSDAY.

Ant. Remember not.

From Ps. lxxxix.

Lord, thou hast been our refuge, from generation to generation.

Before the mountains were made, or the earth and the world were formed; from eternity and to eternity thou art God.

Turn not man away to be brought low: thou hast said, Be converted, O ye sons of men.

For a thousand years in thy sight are but as yesterday, which is past.

For in thy wrath we have fainted away, and are troubled in thine indignation.

Thou hast set our iniquities before thine eyes; our life in the light of thy countenance.

For all our days are spent;

Ant. Remember not.

and in thy wrath we have fainted away.

Turn thou again, O Lord, how long? and be entreated in favour of thy servants.

We are filled in the morning with thy mercy; and we have rejoiced and are delighted all our days.

We have rejoiced for the days in which thou hast humbled us; for the years in which we have seen evils.

Look upon thy servants, and upon thy works; and direct their children.

And let the brightness of the Lord our God be upon us; and direct thou the works of our hands upon us; yea, direct thou the work of our hands.

Glory be, &c.

Lord, have mercy.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O Lord Jesus Christ, infinite goodness, who, by the divine Sacrament of thy Body and Blood, dost refresh, comfort, and nourish thy Church, and daily offerest thyself a sacrifice of praise and propitiation to the eternal Father; look graciously upon our beloved country, shut out from the sweet delights of this banquet; mercifully pardon all that hath been done or said, through impiety or ignorance, against these most holy mysteries in this land; inspire the minds of all men with faith and reverence for them, that they may become thy children, and be as olive plants round about thy table. Who livest and reignest, world without end. Amen.

Then are said the prayers at the end.

Let us pray.

O God, who, building thy Church with infinite wisdom, didst hew out seven pillars, instituting the seven sacraments of the new law, whereby the souls of thy faithful are cleansed from sin, strengthened for combat, and trained unto life eternal;

look graciously upon our beloved country, sinking under the want of so many heavenly blessings ; that, the springs of this sevenfold grace being opened, she may draw waters with joy out of the fountains of the Saviour. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

Then are said the prayers at the end.

SATURDAY.

Ant. Remember not.

From Psalm lxxxviii.

The mercies of the Lord I will sing for ever.

I will show forth thy truth with my mouth to generation and generation.

For thou hast said : Mercy shall be built up for ever in the heavens ; thy truth shall be stablished in them.

I have made a covenant with mine elect, I have sworn unto David my servant : Thy seed will I stablish for ever.

But if his children forsake my law, and walk not in my judgments,

I will visit their iniquities with a rod, and their sins with stripes.

But my mercy I will not utterly take from him : neither will I suffer my truth to fail.

But thou hast rejected and despised, thou hast been angry with thine Anointed.

Thou hast overthrown the covenant of thy servant, thou hast profaned his sanctuary on the earth.

Thou hast broken down all his hedges, thou hast turned his stronghold into fear.

Thou hast set up the right hand of them that oppress him, thou hast made all his enemies to rejoice.

Where are thy ancient mercies, O Lord ; as thou swarest unto David in thy truth ?

Be mindful, O Lord, of the reproach of thy servants (which I have borne in my bosom) of many nations.

Blessed be the Lord for evermore ; so be it, and so be it.

R. Renew our days, as from the beginning.

V. O Lord, hear my prayer.

R. And let my cry come unto thee.

Let us pray.

O most loving Lord Jesus, who, hanging on the Cross, didst commend us all, in the person of thy disciple John, to thy most sweet Mother, that we might find in her our refuge, our solace, and our hope; look graciously upon our beloved country, bereaved of so powerful a patronage; that, acknowledging once more the dignity of this most holy Virgin, it may honour and venerate her with all affection of devotion, and own her as Queen and Mother. May her sweet name be lisped by little ones, and linger on the lips of the aged and the dying;—may it be invoked by the afflicted and hymned by the joyful, that this Star of the Sea, being their protection and their guide, all may come to the harbour of eternal salvation. Who livest and reignest world without end. Amen.

Then are said the following prayers.

To beg the Prayers of the Saints.

O merciful God, let the glorious intercession of thy Saints assist us; particularly the most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of thy only-begotten Son, and thy holy Apostles, Peter and Paul, to whose patronage we humbly recommend our most beloved country. Be mindful of our fathers, Gregory, Bishop of the holy city, and Augustine, who delivered to us inviolate the faith of the holy Roman Church. Remember our holy martyrs, who shed their blood for Christ; but especially thy most glorious Bishop, Thomas. Remember all those holy confessors, bishops, and kings, all those monks and hermits, all those holy virgins and widows, who made this once the Island of Saints, illustrious by their glorious merits and virtues. Let not their memory perish from before thee, O Lord, but let their supplication enter daily into thy sight; and do thou, who didst so often spare thy sinful people for the sake of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, now also, moved by the prayers of our fathers reigning with thee, have mercy upon us, save thy people, and bless thine inheritance; and suffer not those souls to perish which thy Son hath redeemed with his most precious blood. Who liveth and reigneth with thee, world without end. Amen.

ROSARY OF THE MOST BLESSED VIRGIN MARY.

THE FIVE JOYFUL MYSTERIES.

I. The Annunciation.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Angel Gabriel saluted our Blessed Lady with the title, 'Full of Grace,' and declared unto her the Incarnation of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory be to the Father, &c.

Let us pray.

O holy Mary, Queen of Virgins, through the most high mystery of the Incarnation of thy beloved Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, wherein our salvation was begun, obtain for us, through thy most holy intercession, light to understand the greatness of the benefit he hath bestowed upon us, in vouchsafing to become our Brother, and giving thee, his own beloved Mother, to be our Mother also. Amen.

II. The Visitation.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, understanding from the angel that her cousin St. Elisabeth had conceived, went with haste into the mountains of Judea to visit her, bearing her Divine Son within her womb, and remained with her three months.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O holy Virgin, most spotless mirror of humility, by that exceeding charity which moved thee to visit thy holy cousin St. Elisabeth, obtain for us, through thine intercession, that our hearts being visited by thy Divine Son, and freed from all sin, we may praise and give thanks to him for ever. Amen.

III. The Birth of our Saviour Christ in Bethlehem.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, when the time of her delivery was come, brought forth our Redeemer, Jesus Christ, at midnight, and laid him in a manger, because there was no room for him in the inns at Bethlehem.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O most pure Mother of God, through thy virginal and most joyful delivery, whereby thou gavest to the world thy only Son, our Saviour, we beseech thee obtain for us, through thine intercession, the grace to lead such pure and holy lives in this world, that we may become worthy to sing, without ceasing, the mercies of thy Son, and his benefits to us by thee. Amen.

IV. The Presentation of our Blessed Lord in the Temple.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, on the day of her purification, presented the child Jesus in the Temple, where holy Simeon, giving thanks to God, with great devotion received him into his arms.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O holy Virgin, most admirable mistress and pattern of obedience, who didst present the Lord of the Temple in the Temple of God, obtain for us, of thy Blessed Son, that, with holy Simeon and devout Anna, we may praise and glorify him for ever. Amen.

V. The Finding of the Child Jesus in the Temple.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Blessed Virgin Mary, after having lost (through no fault of hers) her beloved Son in Jerusalem, sought him for the space of three days, and at length found him in the Temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, hearing them, and asking them questions, being of the age of twelve years.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O most blessed Virgin, more than martyr in thy sufferings, and yet the comfort of such as are afflicted; by that unspeakable joy wherewith thy soul was filled, when at length thou didst find thy well-beloved Son in the Temple, teaching in the midst of the doctors; obtain of him that we may so seek him and find him in his holy Catholic Church, as never more to be separated from him. Amen.

Salve Regina, &c., Hail, holy Queen, &c. ; with V. and R. ; and prayer, 'Hear, O merciful God,' &c. ; or else, 'O God, whose only-begotten Son,' &c.

THE FIVE SORROWFUL MYSTERIES.I. The Prayer and Bloody Sweat of our Blessed Saviour in Garden.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus was so afflicted for us in the garden of Gethsemane, that his body was bathed in a bloody sweat, which ran down in great drops to the ground.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O most holy Virgin, more than martyr; by that ardent prayer which our beloved Saviour poured forth to his Heavenly Father in the garden, vouchsafe to intercede for us, that, our passions being reduced to the obedience of reason, we may always, and in all things, conform and subject ourselves to the holy will of God. Amen.

II. The Scourging of our Blessed Lord at the Pillar.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ was most cruelly scourged in Pilate's house, the number of stripes they gave him being about five thousand.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O Mother of God, overflowing fountain of patience, through those stripes thy only and much-beloved Son vouchsafed to suffer for us, obtain of him for us grace to mortify our rebellious senses, to avoid the occasion of sin, and to be ready to suffer everything rather than offend God. Amen.

III. The Crowning of our Blessed Saviour with Thorns.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how those cruel ministers of Satan platted a crown of sharp thorns, and cruelly pressed it on the sacred head of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O Mother of our Eternal Prince, the King of Glory ; by those sharp thorns wherewith his sacred head was pierced, we beseech thee obtain, through thy intercession, that we may be delivered from all motions of pride, and escape that shame which our sins deserve at the day of judgment. Amen.

IV. Jesus carrying his Cross.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, being sentenced to die, bore, with the most amazing patience, the Cross which was laid upon him for his greater torment and ignominy.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O holy Virgin, example of patience ; by the most painful carrying of the Cross, in which thy Son, our Lord Jesus Christ, bore the heavy weight of our sins, obtain for us of him, through thine intercession, courage and strength to follow his steps, and bear our cross after him to the end of our lives. Amen.

V. The Crucifixion of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, being come to Mount Calvary, was stripped of his clothes, and his hands and feet nailed to the Cross, in the presence of his most afflicted Mother.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O holy Mary, Mother of God; as the body of thy beloved Son was for us stretched upon the Cross, so may we offer up our souls and bodies to be crucified with him, and our hearts to be pierced with grief at his most bitter Passion; and thou, O most sorrowful Mother, graciously vouchsafe to help us, by thy all-powerful intercession, to accomplish the work of our salvation. Amen.

Salve Regina, or Hail, holy Queen, &c.

Prayer. Hear, O merciful God, &c., or O God, whose only begotten Son, &c.

THE FIVE GLORIOUS MYSTERIES.I. The Resurrection of our Lord from the Dead.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, triumphing gloriously over death, rose again the third day, immortal and impassible.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O glorious Virgin Mary; by that unspeakable joy thou didst receive in the resurrection of thy Divine Son, we beseech thee obtain for us of him, that our hearts may never go astray after the false joys of this world, but may be for ever wholly employed in the pursuit of the only true and solid joys of heaven. Amen.

II. The Ascension of Christ into Heaven.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how our Lord Jesus Christ, forty days after his resurrection, ascended into heaven, attended by angels, in the sight and to the great admiration of his most holy Mother, and his holy Apostles and disciples.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O Mother of God, comforter of the afflicted ; as thy beloved Son, when he ascended into heaven, lifted up his hands and blessed his Apostles, as he was parted from them ; so vouchsafe, most holy Mother, to lift up thy pure hands to him on our behalf, that we may enjoy the benefits of his blessing and of thine, here on earth, and hereafter in heaven. Amen.

III. The Descent of the Holy Ghost on the Apostles.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the Lord Jesus Christ, being seated on the right hand of God, sent, as he had promised, the Holy Ghost upon his Apostles, who, after he was ascended, returning to Jerusalem, continued in prayer and supplication with the Blessed Virgin Mary, expecting the performance of his promise.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O sacred Virgin, tabernacle of the Holy Ghost ; we beseech thee obtain, by thine intercession, that this most sweet Comforter, whom thy beloved Son sent down upon his Apostles, filling them thereby with spiritual joy, may teach us in this world the true way of salvation, and make us to walk in the way of virtue and good works. Amen.

IV. The Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary into Heaven.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the glorious Virgin, twelve years after the resurrection of her Son, passed out of this world unto him, and was by him assumed into heaven, accompanied by the holy Angels.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O most prudent Virgin, who, entering the heavenly palaces, didst fill the angels with joy and man with hope ; vouchsafe to intercede for us at the hour of our death, that, being delivered from the illusions and temptations of the devil, we may joyfully and securely pass out of this temporal state, to enjoy the happiness of eternal life. Amen.

V. The Coronation of the most Blessed Virgin Mary in Heaven.

Let us contemplate, in this mystery, how the glorious Virgin Mary was, to the great jubilee and exultation of the whole court of heaven, and particular glory of all the Saints, crowned by her Son with the brightest diadem of glory.

Our Father. Ten Hail Marys. Glory, &c.

Let us pray.

O glorious Queen of all the heavenly host ; we beseech thee accept this Rosary, which, as a crown of roses, we offer at thy feet ; and grant, most gracious Lady, that, by thy intercession, our souls may be inflamed with so ardent a desire of seeing thee so gloriously crowned, that it may never die within us, until it shall be changed into the happy fruition of thy blessed sight. Amen.

Salve Regina, or Hail, holy Queen, &c.

Prayer. Hear, O merciful God, &c., or O God, whose only-begotten Son, &c.

O, Cor amoris, Victima
Coeli perenne gaudium,
Mortalium solatium,
Mortalium spes ultima.

Cor dulce, Cor amabile,
Amore nostri sancium,

Amore nostri languidum,
Fac sis mihi placabile.

Jesu ! Patris oor unicum,
Puris amicum mentibus,
Puris amandum cordibus
In corde regnes omnium.

Amen.

Cor Jesu.

To Jesus' Heart, all burning
 With fervent love for men,
 My heart with fondest yearning
 Shall raise its joyful strain.

CHORUS.

While ages course along,
 Blest be with loudest song
 The Sacred Heart of Jesus
 By every heart and tongue.

O Heart, for sinners riven
 By sheer excess of love,
 The spear through thee was driven,
 'Twas sin of mine that drove.

O Heart, for me on fire
 With love no tongue can speak,
 My yet untold desire
 God gives me for thy sake.

Dear Lord, my soul would venture
 To urge one earnest prayer :
 Keep, Lord, in thy Heart's centre
 One little nook for her.

Too true I have forsaken
 Thy hearth by wilful sin ;

Yet let me now be taken
 Back to my home again.

From all that can infect me,
 O cleanse me with thy blood ;
 For thine own spouse elect me,
 My God, my Sovereign Good !

As thou art meek and lowly,
 And ever pure of heart,
 So may my heart be wholly
 Of thine the counterpart.

Away with earthly passion,
 Away with sordid pelf ;
 In my heart's consecration,
 I yield thee all myself.

Would that to me were given
 The pinions of the dove !
 I'd pierce the highest heaven
 My Jesus' love to prove.

Within the cleft I'll cower
 Of Jesus' wounded side ;
 In sunshine or in shower,
 Securely there I'll hide.

When life away is flying,
 And earth's false glare is done,
 Still, Sacred Heart, in dying,
 I'll say, 'I'm all thine own.'

Veni Creator Spiritus,

Psalm l. Miserere.

Miserere mei, Deus : secundum magnam misericordiam tuam.

Et secundum multitudinem miserationum tuarum : dele iniquitatem meam.

Amplius lava me ab iniquitate mea : et a peccato meo munda me.

Quoniam iniquitatem meam ego cognosco : et peccatum meum contra me est semper.

Tibi soli peccavi, et malum coram te feci : ut justificeris in sermonibus tuis, et vincas cum judicaris.

Ecce enim in iniquitatibus conceptus sum : et in peccatis concepit me mater mea.

1 Have mercy upon me, O God : according to thy great mercy.

2 And according to the multitude of thy tender mercies : blot out my iniquity.

3 Wash me yet more from my iniquity : and cleanse me from my sin.

4 For I acknowledge my iniquity : and my sin is always before me.

5 Against thee only have I sinned, and done evil in thy sight : that thou mayest be justified in thy words, and mayest overcome when thou art judged.

6 For behold, I was conceived in iniquities : and in sins did my mother conceive me.

Ecce enim veritatem dilexisti : incerta et occulta sapientiæ tuæ manifestasti mihi.

Asperges me hyssopo, et mundabor : lavabis me, et super nivem dealbabor.

Auditui meo dabis gaudium et lætitiā : et exultabunt ossa humiliata.

Averte faciem tuam a peccatis meis : et omnes iniquitates meas dele.

Cor mundum crea in me, Deus : et spiritum rectum innova in visceribus meis.

Ne projicias me a facie tua : et Spiritum Sanctum tuum ne auferas a me.

Redde mihi lætitiā salutaris tui : et spiritu principali confirma me.

Docebo iniquos vias tuas : et impii ad te convertentur.

Libera me de sanguinibus, Deus, Deus salutis meæ : et exultabit lingua mea justitiā tuam.

Domine, labia mea aperies : et os meum annuntiabit laudem tuam.

Quoniam si voluisses sacrificium, dedissem utique : holocaustis non delectaberis.

7 For behold, thou hast loved truth : the uncertain and hidden things of thy wisdom thou hast made manifest unto me.

8 Thou shalt sprinkle me with hyssop, and I shall be cleansed : thou shalt wash me, and I shall be made whiter than snow.

9 Thou shalt make me hear of joy and gladness : and the bones that were humbled shall rejoice.

10 Turn away thy face from my sins : and blot out all my iniquities.

11 Create in me a clean heart, O God : and renew a right spirit within my bowels.

12 Cast me not away from thy presence : and take not thy Holy Spirit from me.

13 Restore unto me the joy of thy salvation : and strengthen me with a perfect spirit.

14 I will teach the unjust thy ways : and the wicked shall be converted unto thee.

15 Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou God of my salvation : and my tongue shall extol thy justice.

16 Thou shalt open my lips, O Lord : and my mouth shall declare thy praise.

17 For if thou hadst desired sacrifice, I would surely have given it : with burnt-offerings thou wilt not be delighted.

Sacrificium Deo spiritus contribulatus : oer contritum et humiliatum, Deus, non despicies.

Benigne fac, Domine, in bona voluntate tua Sion : ut ædificentur muri Jerusalem.

Tunc acceptabis sacrificium justitiæ, oblationes, et holocausta : tunc imponent super altare tuum vitulos.

Gloria, &c.

18 The sacrifice of God is an afflicted spirit : a contrite
and humble heart, O God,
thou wilt not despise.

19 Deal favourably, O Lord, in thy good will with Sion :
that the walls of Jerusalem
may be built up.

20 Then shalt thou accept the sacrifice of justice, oblations, and whole burnt-offerings : then shall they lay calves upon thine altars.

Glory, &c.

Te Deum.

Te Deum laudamus : te Dominum confitemur.

Te æternum Patrem : omnis terra veneratur.

Tibi omnes angeli : tibi coeli et universæ potestates ;

Tibi cherubim et seraphim :
incessabili voce proclamant ;

Sanctus, sanctus, sanctus : Dominus Deus Sabaoth.

Pleni sunt celi et terra : ma-jestatis gloriæ tuæ.

Te gloriosus : Apostolorum
chorus.

Te Prophetarum : laudabilis numerus.

Te Martyrum : candidatus laudat exercitus.

We praise thee, O God : we acknowledge thee to be the Lord.

All the earth doth worship thee : the Father everlasting.

To thee all angels : to thee
the heavens and all the powers
therein ;

To thee cherubim and sera-phim : continually cry ;

Holy, holy, holy : Lord God of Sabaoth.

Heaven and earth are full :
of the majesty of thy glory.

The glorious choir of the Apostles.

The admirable company of the Prophets.

The white-robed army of Martyrs : praise thee.

Te per orbem terrarum :
sancta confitetur Ecclesia.

Patrem : immensæ majestatis.

Venerandum tuum verum :
et unicum Filium.

Sanctum quoque : Paracli-tum Spiritum.

Tu Rex gloriæ : Christe.

Tu Patris : sempiternus es
Filius.

Tu ad liberandum suscepturus hominem : non horruisti
Virginis uterum.

Tu devicto mortis aculeo :
aperuisti credentibus regna cœlorum.

Tu ad dexteram Dei sedes :
in gloria Patris.

Judex crederis : esse venturus.

* Te ergo quæsumus, tuis famulis subveni : quos pretioso sanguine redemisti.

Æterna fac cum Sanctis tuis :
in gloria numerari.

Salvum fac populum tuum,
Domine : et benedic hæreditati tuæ.

Et rege eos : et extolle illos
usque in æternum.

The Holy Church throughout all the world : doth confess thee.

The Father : of infinite majesty.

Thy adorable, true : and only Son.

Also the Holy Ghost : the Comforter.

Thou art the King of Glory :
O Christ.

Thou art the everlasting
Son : of the Father.

When thou tookest upon thee to deliver man : thou didst not abhor the Virgin's womb.

When thou hadst overcome the sting of death : thou didst
open the kingdom of heaven to all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of God : in the glory of the Father.

We believe that thou shalt come : to be our Judge.

We pray thee, therefore,
help thy servants : whom thou hast redeemed with thy precious blood.

Make them to be numbered with thy Saints : in glory everlasting.

O Lord, save thy people :
and bless thine inheritance.

And govern them : and lift them up for ever.

* Here it is usual to kneel.

Per singulos dies : benedicimus te. Day by day : we bless thee.

Et laudamus nomen tuum in sæculum : et in sæculum sæculi. And we praise thy name for ever : yea, for ever and ever.

Dignare, Domine, die isto : sine peccato nos custodire. Vouchsafe, O Lord, this day : to keep us without sin.

Miserere nostri, Domine : miserere nostri. O Lord, have mercy upon us : have mercy upon us.

Fiat misericordia tua, Domine, super nos : quemadmodum speravimus in te. O Lord, let thy mercy be showed upon us : as we have hoped in thee.

In te, Domine, speravi : non confundar in æternum. O Lord, in thee have I hoped : let me not be confounded for ever.

Faith of our Fathers.

Faith of our fathers, living still,
In spite of dungeon, fire, and sword ;
O, how our hearts beat high with joy
Whene'er we hear that glorious word !
Faith of our fathers, holy Faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Our fathers chain'd in prisons dark
Were still in heart and conscience free ;
How sweet would be their children's fate,
If they, like them, could die for thee !
Faith of our fathers, holy Faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

¶ E Faith of our fathers ! Mary's prayers
Shall win our country back to thee ;
¶ A And through the truth that comes from God,
O, then indeed we shall be free.
¶ F Faith of our fathers, holy Faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Faith of our fathers, we will love
Both friend and foe in all our strife,
And preach thee too, as love knows how
By kindly words and virtuous life.
Faith of our fathers, holy Faith,
We will be true to thee till death.

Daily, daily sing to Mary.

Daily, daily sing to Mary,
Sing, my soul, her praises due ;
All her feasts, her actions worship
With the heart's devotion true.
Lost in wond'ring contemplation
Be her majesty confest :
Call her Mother, call her Virgin,
Happy Mother, Virgin blest.

She is mighty to deliver ;
Call her, trust her lovingly :
When the tempest rages round thee
She will calm the troubled sea.
Gifts of Heaven she has given,
Noble Lady, to our race ;
She, the Queen, who decks her subjects
With the light of God's own grace.

All my senses, heart, affections,
Strive to sound her glory forth ;
Spread abroad the sweet memorials
Of the Virgin's priceless worth.
Sing in songs of praise unending,
Sing the world's majestic Queen ;
Weary not, nor faint in telling
All the gifts she gives to men.

Pilgrimage Hymn.

O Jesus ! Lord of life and light !
God of all love and boundless power !
' O light in darkness, joy in grief !'
Smile on us, Lord, in this thine hour.

From our own sea-girt Isle we come—
The Isle of Saints in days of yore—
Faith's pilgrim sons, we cross the main,
The Heart of Jesus to adore.

That sacred Heart on every breast
Tells of the love that burns within,
For Him who showed that Heart of his,
These hardened hearts of ours to win.

High let it wave, that badge divine,
The Pilgrim's banner raise aloft,
Its flutter speaks of him whose voice
' Has still'd an angry world so oft.'

O, by the words of sweetest power
Thou erst didst speak in Paray's walls,
And every spell whose lingering grace
On listening heart and spirit falls ;

By every hope that leads us on ;
By every pledge in mercy given,—
Hear, Lord, the English Pilgrim's prayer ;
Throw open wide the gates of Heaven !

Send down thy grace in bounteous streams,
Rain on us all thy choicest gifts ;
Patience and love and faith, whose strength
Mountains of mighty weight uplifts.

Yet once more speak the words which turn
Darkness to light—O, let light shine
On that dear country, those dear homes
Which once, O dearest Lord, were thine.

'We love to kiss each print where thou
Hast left the mark of thy dear feet ;'
We love to kneel on every spot
Where traces of thy love we meet.

O, turn thy steps, O, show thy Heart
To England once so dear to thee ;
Give to her Pilgrims, one and all,
Heralds of love and peace to be.

Yet one more prayer, one louder cry,
Than e'en for kindred or for home,
We raise, O God, for him who mourns
O'er thine own fallen city, Rome !

The captive lord of countless hearts,
The Father and the Pontiff King,
Beneath whose sway we love to lie
As children 'neath a mother's wing.

And as we tread a foreign soil,
And catch the oft-repeated strain
That floats along the lucid air
That hovers o'er the sunlit plain,

Let heart and voice join in the prayer
That swells the breeze for Peter's dome :
'O, by thy Heart, thy Sacred Heart,
Jesus, save England, France, and Rome !'

THE END.
